R. THOMAS GAGLARDI

OWNER, GOVERNOR & CHAIRMAN

R. Thomas (Tom) Gaglardi is the owner, governor and chairman of the Dallas Stars Hockey Club and the CEO of Northland Properties Corporation, the largest family-owned hospitality company in Canada with its head offices located in Vancouver, B.C. He was officially introduced as the sixth owner in franchise history on Nov. 21, 2011.

Since acquiring the club, Gaglardi has revitalized hockey in the Dallas-Fort Worth Metroplex, overhauling the team's front office by hiring veteran administrator Jim Lites to serve as president and installing one of the most respected hockey minds in Jim Nill as general manager. He also spearheaded the overhaul of the team's logo and uniform, forging a new identity for the club to fit his vision.

Under his watch, industry insiders have consistently identified the Stars as a team "on the rise" for both the business and hockey operations side of the organization. During the 2014-15 season, Gaglardi purchased the Texas Stars of the American Hockey League (AHL) and acquired the operating rights to H-E-B Center at Cedar Park in Cedar Park, Texas. The move reinforced his commitment to sustaining and growing the sport of hockey in the state of Texas and creating a seamless organizational process to develop and train NHL-caliber players, coaches and front office staff.

A passionate and knowledgeable leader who is deeply involved in all aspects of the family's business, Gaglardi began his career in the hospitality industry at age 13 as a busboy and has worked in virtually every area of his business since that time. He spent considerable time in construction, hotel and restaurant operations, real estate development and finance. At age 23, he was promoted to president of the Sandman Hotel Group, and at 26 he became president of Northland Properties Corporation, the Gaglardi family's umbrella company.

Under his direction, Northland has grown to be the largest family-owned hospitality company in Canada including a large portfolio of hotels with the Sandman Hotel Group and the Sutton Place Hotels & Resorts, several restaurant chains including Denny's Restaurants of Canada, Moxie's Grill & Bar, Chop Steakhouse & Bar and Shark Club Bar & Grill. In 2009, Gaglardi began expanding his brand of hospitality to the United Kingdom and more recently began operating in the United States, with the first Moxie's Grill & Bar opening in Dallas in November 2016, and the first Sandman Hotel opening in Plano in February 2019. The family also owns and operates a large real estate portfolio and the world-renowned Revelstoke Mountain Resort. In addition to his role with the Stars, Gaglardi is a co-owner of the Kamloops Blazers Hockey Club of the Western Hockey League and serves as its governor.

An active member of the community, Gaglardi founded the Sandman Harvest Foundation, which has raised over $1 million for disadvantaged and medically challenged children living in the Okanagan Valley of British Columbia. He also serves as trustee for the PA and JM Gaglardi Senior Citizens Society, a non-profit society providing housing for seniors in Kamloops, B. C. and serves on the board of St. George's School in Vancouver. He founded the Josh Dyck Foundation to assist Josh with his recovery from an auto accident in October 2006, which left him paralyzed and confined to a wheelchair.

Gaglardi and his wife Brittney have three sons, Charlie, Bennett and Wilson, all of whom play competitive hockey. In addition to his own participation on his hockey team, Gaglardi enjoys playing golf and spending time with his family at their cottage on the shores of Kamloops Lake near Savona, B.C.

BRAD ALBERTS

PRESIDENT & CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Brad Alberts is in his second tenure with the Dallas Stars and currently serves as President and Chief Executive Officer after rejoining the team in February 2011.

Additionally, he acts as President and Alternate Governor of the Texas Stars, Dallas' development affiliate in the American Hockey League, roles in which he has served in since July 1, 2017.

Alberts serves on the American Airlines Center Board of Directors, assisting in the management of one of the busiest arenas in the United States.

Alberts, who was named team President on March 2, 2018 and took on the role of Chief Executive Officer on July 10, 2020, oversees all aspects of the Stars business operations. Previously leading all sales and marketing, he's also in charge of all aspects of the organization's finance and administration, box office, human resources and information technology, as well as the communications department, which has won three Dick Dillman Awards as the NHL's Western Conference top public relations staff under his leadership.

Alberts' career includes nearly two decades of professional sports experience selling tickets, suites, premium seating and sponsorships. From 1996-2009, Alberts worked for the Dallas Stars and Texas Rangers in various sales management roles in tickets, suites and corporate sponsorships. From 2006-09, Alberts served as the Executive Vice President of the Hicks Sports Marketing Group, the in-house sponsorship sales group for the Stars, Texas Rangers and Liverpool Football Club. In 2009, Alberts took over as the Vice President of Sponsorship and Sales at Legends/CSL, overseeing events at numerous venues around the country, most notably the Circuit of The Americas, a Formula One racing track in Austin, Texas.

Since rejoining the team in 2011, Alberts has played an integral role in the resurgence of the Stars in the Dallas-Fort Worth Metroplex, helping lead the organization to tremendous growth in brand visibility, attendance and sponsorship sales. Alberts and his leadership team were instrumental in the sweeping rebrand of the team, retiring the numbers of Mike Modano, Jere Lehtinen and Sergei Zubov and creating tremendous sponsorship value for the team and its partners. Under his leadership and direction, the organization hosted the 2020 Winter Classic at Cotton Bowl Stadium against the Nashville Predators. The event sold out within hours of tickets going on sale and was hailed as one of the most successful NHL events of all time, becoming the second-highest attended game in league history with a capacity crowd of 85,630.

Alberts received his bachelor's degree from Ripon College in 1992 where he was a four-year lettermen and co-captain of the basketball team, earning an induction into the Ripon College Athletic Hall of Fame in 2002. He received a master's degree in sports administration from University of Northern Colorado in 1995. Alberts is an avid golfer and fitness enthusiast. Alberts serves as a member of the American Cancer Society CEO Board, the Dallas Sports Commission Board and is actively involved in other non-profit causes in the Metroplex.

He resides in Dallas with his wife Kate and their daughter Grace.

JIM NILL

GENERAL MANAGER/ALTERNATE GOVERNOR

Nill, 66, is in his 12th season with the Stars, having served as the team's 11th general manager and sixth GM since moving to Dallas. During Nill's tenure, the Stars have amassed a record of 455-301-107 and have made the Stanley Cup Playoffs in seven seasons (2013-14, 2015-16, 2018-19, 2019-20, 2021-22, 2022-23 and 2023-24), including three trips to the Western Conference Final (2020, 2023 and 2024) and an appearance in the Stanley Cup Final (2020). The longest serving general manager in franchise history, Nill became the first GM in team history to win the Jim Gregory General Manager of the Year Award following the conclusion of the 2022-23 campaign, which recognizes the work of the top general manager in the NHL. A four-time finalist, Nill joined Lou Lamoriello (2019-20 and 2020-21) as the only GMs to capture the award in consecutive seasons when he was named the 2023-24 recipient on June 10, 2014.

Nill's 2023-24 Stars (52-21-9) led the Western Conference with 113 points, their highest total since the Stanley Cup-winning 1998-99 squad (114), and advanced to the Western Conference Final for the third time in five seasons. Dallas' top three scorers and starting goaltender during the 2024 playoff run were among the nine Nill draft picks on the playoff roster, including Miko Heiskanen, Jason Robertson, Jake Oettinger and Wyatt Johnston. Nill added to the team that also reached the 2023 Western Conference Final by signing Matt Duchene, Craig Smith and Sam Steel during the offseason and acquiring Chris Tanev near the trade deadline.

Nill began the 2022-23 campaign by bringing in new Head Coach Pete DeBoer, who became the second coach in NHL history to reach the Conference Finals with four different franchises during the Stars' 2023 postseason run. Prior to the start of the season, Nill extended the contracts of Oettinger and Robertson -- both of whom went on to post career-best seasons -- and acquired defenseman Nils Lundkvist via trade. Nill also signed forward Roope Hintz, the Stars' leading scorer in the 2023 postseason, to an eight-year contract extension in November before acquiring forwards Evgenii Dadonov and Max Domi ahead of the trade deadline, bolstering the team as it headed into the Stanley Cup Playoffs.

Since joining the Stars, Nill has dramatically re-shaped the team's culture and roster with a series of trades and acquisitions. He began to make his mark on the club with key acquisitions of centers Tyler Seguin and Jason Spezza and three-time Stanley Cup champion Patrick Sharp. After leading the team to regular-season Central Division and Western Conference championships in 2015-16, Nill was named a finalist for GM of the Year, marking his first career nomination. He'd continue to add more pieces over the next few seasons, including trading for goaltender Ben Bishop and signing right wing Alexander Radulov, goaltender Anton Khudobin and center Joe Pavelski, leading to a highlight season for the Stars in 2019-20. Following the NHL's pause due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the team traveled to the Edmonton bubble and advanced to the Stanley Cup Final for the first time since the 2000-01 season and the fifth time in franchise history, ultimately losing in six games to the Tampa Bay Lightning. Nill's accomplishments and roster building during the 2019-20 campaign was recognized, as he was named a finalist for GM of the Year for the second time in his career. He has also used the NHL Draft to build the core for both the team's present and future, selecting standout players such as Hintz (2015), Heiskanen (2017), Oettinger (2017), Robertson (2017), Thomas Harley (2019), Johnston (2021) and Logan Stankoven (2021).

A native of Hanna, Alberta, Nill joined the Red Wings' front office in the summer of 1994 following three seasons with the Ottawa Senators. Previously, Nill enjoyed a nine-season NHL career as a right wing with the Boston Bruins, Vancouver Canucks, St. Louis Blues, Winnipeg Jets and Red Wings. He collected 58 goals, 87 assists and 854 penalty minutes in 524 regular-season games. Nill later went to Adirondack as a player/coach, retiring as a player after the 1990-91 season. A member of the 1979-80 Canadian National and Olympic teams, he was originally selected by St. Louis in the fifth round (89th overall) of the 1978 NHL Draft.

Jim and his wife, Rebecca, reside in Frisco, Texas, and have three children: Jenna, Trevor and Kristin, and three grandchildren: Cael, Hazel and Lincoln.

SCOTT WHITE

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER
TEXAS STARS GM

Scott White is in his 10th season as assistant general manager, while he also serves as the general manager for the Texas Stars, Dallas' development affiliate in the American Hockey League (AHL). The only GM in Texas Stars history, White was the architect behind the 2015 Calder Cup-winning club that set a franchise record with 48 wins, claiming the Macgregor Kilpatrick Trophy as the AHL's regular-season points champion. He also manufactured the team's second John D. Chick Trophy win (West Division champions) in 2018 as Texas again reached the Calder Cup Final. White was selected by Hockey Canada to serve as a member of the management group for Canada's National Men's Team at the 2014 Deutschland Cup and 2014 Spengler Cup.

A member of the Dallas Stars organization since 2005, White, 56, previously served as a professional scout and director of minor league operations. He headed up the hockey department for the Iowa Stars, Dallas' then-primary affiliate, for three seasons. Prior to joining the Stars organization, he served as head coach of the Columbia Inferno of the ECHL for four seasons, qualifying for a playoff berth each year. He also guided Columbia to a Kelly Cup Final appearance in 2003 and finished with a 165-87-36 record with the Inferno. White also worked as an assistant coach with the ECHL's Greensboro Monarchs for a season and a half. In college, White played for Michigan Tech University from 1985-89 and was an assistant coach from 1995-99. He was inducted into the Michigan Tech Sports Hall of Fame in 2016.

White played five years of professional hockey from 1989-94, including three seasons with Greensboro, where he won the 1990 ECHL Championship and earned ECHL Defenseman of the Year and First-Team All-ECHL honors for the 1991-92 season. He signed with the Ottawa Senators in 1992 and played the entire season with the club's AHL affiliate in New Haven, capturing team MVP honors with 54 points (10-44–54) in 80 games.

White and his wife, Kathy, have four children: Emily, Katie, William, Madelyn and three grandkids: Remi, Corbin and Cooper.

MARK JANKO

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Mark Janko is in his 25th season with the Dallas Stars and his ninth as assistant general manager. Janko has spent the past 16 seasons in hockey operations after previously working in the Stars' public relations department for eight years.

In his current role, Janko is primarily responsible for player and staff contract negotiations and has played an integral role in the construction and framing of the contracts for several of the team's core players including Thomas Harley, Miro Heiskanen, Roope Hintz, Esa Lindell, Jake Oettinger and Jason Robertson.

Janko oversees all preseason and regular-season scheduling, Collective Bargaining Agreement compliance, cap and budget management, salary arbitration, strategic planning and works closely with Dallas' scouting staff, with an emphasis on the professional level. Along with Jim Nill, he created and now oversees an analytics department, a mental health division and a sports science branch for the Club. He also serves as the team's liaison for all player transactions with NHL's Central Registry.

Janko, 48, joined the Stars in 1999 after serving in the media relations department for the Mighty Ducks of Anaheim during the 1998-99 season. A native of Mission Viejo, California, Janko graduated from the University of California at Santa Barbara with a degree in communications in 1998. He and his wife, Jessica, their daughters, Reese and Hayden, and son, Carson, reside in Highland Village, Texas.

RICH PEVERLEY

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Rich Peverley is in his 10th season with the Stars and his fourth as director of player personnel. In his current role, Peverley works alongside the club's hockey operations management team of general manager Jim Nill, assistant general manager and Texas Stars GM Scott White and assistant general manager Mark Janko, assisting in the decision-making process with regards to player personnel and the team's makeup. Peverley is also heavily involved in professional and amateur scouting, as well as player development.

Peverley, 42, played nine seasons in the National Hockey League, spending time with Nashville, Atlanta, Boston and Dallas. He finished his career having tallied 241 points (84-157–241), including 20 game-winning goals, in 442 regular-season contests. A member of the 2011 Stanley Cup champion Boston Bruins, Peverley accumulated 21 points (9-12–21) in 59 postseason contests with two trips to the Stanley Cup Final, both with Boston. Prior to breaking into the NHL, Peverley went undrafted after playing four seasons of college hockey with St. Lawrence (ECAC). Peverley skated in 138 games for the Saints, registering 117 points (44-73–117).

A native of Guelph, Ontario, Peverley currently resides in his native Ontario with his wife Nathalie and their three children Isabelle, Frederik and Elena. In addition to his work in hockey, Peverley is also extremely active with the American Heart Association, and created PEVS Protects, aimed at raising funds for AED purchases and training in the community, as well as CPR training.

JOE MCDONNELL

DIRECTOR, AMATEUR SCOUTING

Joe McDonnell is in his 12th season as director of amateur scouting for the Stars. In his role, McDonnell oversees all facets of the team's amateur scouting operations, including running the Stars' efforts at the NHL Draft, while working closely with GM Jim Nill and his staff. Among players McDonnell has drafted in the first round include Miro Heiskanen, Jake Oettinger, Thomas Harley, Mavrik Bourque, Wyatt Johnston and Lian Bichsel.

McDonnell was a member of the Detroit Red Wings organization for 18 years, winning four Stanley Cups (1997, 1998, 2002, 2008). He was appointed the club's director of amateur scouting in 2003 and served in that role until he joined the Stars. He was hired as an amateur scout by Detroit in 1995 and was an integral part in drafting Pavel Datsyuk, Henrik Zetterberg, Niklas Kronwall, Valtteri Filppula, Jimmy Howard and Johan Franzen, amongst others.

The Kitchener, Ontario, native played professional hockey for seven seasons, including three in the NHL with the Vancouver Canucks and Pittsburgh Penguins. In 50 career NHL contests, he recorded 12 points (2-10–12) and 34 penalty minutes. Additionally, McDonnell served as head coach of the Kitchener Rangers (OHL) from 1986-95, qualifying for the postseason in each of his nine seasons.

CRAIG BONNER

HEAD PROFESSIONAL SCOUT

Craig Bonner is in his ninth season with the Stars having served as a professional scout since joining the team's front office in 2015-16. In his expanded role as head professional scout, Bonner coordinates the club's professional scouting initiatives, including covering the NHL, American Hockey League (AHL) and European pro tournaments. Prior to joining Dallas, Bonner spent seven years as vice president of hockey operations/general manager of the Western Hockey League's Kamloops Blazers beginning in the 2008-09 season.

A native of Edmonton, Alberta, Bonner, 52, played three seasons of professional hockey from 1993-96. The former defenseman appeared in 12 career AHL games with Syracuse, recording one assist, while also skating in 62 career International Hockey League games with the Kalamazoo Wings/Michigan K-Wings, registering 10 points (2-8–10) and 114 penalty minutes for the then-primary development affiliate of Dallas. He also spent five seasons with Kamloops, recording 130 points (29-101–130) in 250 career games. After his retirement from hockey following the 1995-96 season, Bonner returned to Kamloops, serving as an assistant coach for five seasons before joining the Vancouver Giants (WHL) as assistant general manager and assistant coach in 2002-03. Bonner won a Memorial Cup with Kamloops as a player in 1992 and as an assistant coach/assistant GM in 2007.

PETE DEBOER

HEAD COACH

Pete DeBoer is in his third season behind the bench for the Stars after being named the 25th head coach in franchise history and 10th in Dallas Stars history on June 21, 2022.

In his two seasons as head coach of the Stars, DeBoer, 56, has guided the club to back-to-back Western Conference Final appearances with a 99-42-23 regular-season record. He has earned a 20-18 record in the Stanley Cup Playoffs with Dallas, the second-most postseason wins over the last two seasons.

The Dunnville, Ontario native owns a record of 612-421-146 in 1,179 games coached over 16 NHL seasons with Dallas, Vegas, San Jose, New Jersey and Florida. Since entering the league in 2008-09, DeBoer ranks first in regular season wins and first in games coached.

In the 2023 postseason, the Stars became the fourth franchise DeBoer has led to a Conference Finals/Semifinals appearance (also Vegas, San Jose & New Jersey), a feat accomplished by only one other head coach in NHL history - Scotty Bowman (5; St. Louis, Montreal, Buffalo, Pittsburgh & Detroit). Additionally, DeBoer is the only head coach in NHL history to lead a franchise to a Conference Finals/Semifinals appearance in his first season as head coach on four separate occasions. DeBoer has also reached the Stanley Cup Final on two occasions, first with New Jersey (2012) and then with San Jose (2016).

DeBoer owns a career record of 88-73 in 161 postseason contests, tied for the 10th-most wins in NHL history. Since entering the league in 2008-09, his 88 postseason wins are the most by any head coach, while he ranks first in total postseason games coached. His 17 playoff series wins are tied with Pat Quinn for the 10th-most in league history and the second-most by an active head coach behind John Cooper (18). DeBoer is a perfect 8-0 in Game 7s, which is tied with Scotty Bowman for the most Game 7 wins in NHL history. His most recent Game 7 victory came during the 2024 Stanley Cup Playoffs, upending the reigning Stanley Cup champion Vegas Golden Knights with a 2-1 win in Game 7 of the 2024 First Round. During the 2021 Stanley Cup Playoffs, DeBoer became the first coach in NHL history to win his first five Game 7 appearances. With the win, DeBoer became the third coach to win a Game 7 with four different teams, joining Darryl Sutter (8-3 with Calgary, Chicago, Los Angeles and San Jose) and Scotty Bowman (6-3 with Buffalo, Detroit, Montreal, Pittsburgh and St. Louis).

DeBoer joined the Stars after spending parts of three seasons as the head coach of the Vegas Golden Knights. Hired midway through the 2019-20 season, he guided the Golden Knights to the 2020 Western Conference Final against the Stars. In his time with Vegas, DeBoer earned a 98-50-12 record in 160 regular-season contests with a .650 points percentage. He led Vegas to the postseason in two of his three campaigns with the club, registering a 22-17 record in 39 postseason games and reaching the semifinal round in both the 2020 and 2021 Stanley Cup Playoffs.

Prior to his time in Vegas, DeBoer served as the head coach for San Jose over five seasons (2015-19) and amassed a 198-129-34 record in 361 regular-season games. He qualified for the Stanley Cup Playoffs in four of his five campaigns with the Sharks and helped lead the team to its first Stanley Cup Final appearance in franchise history during the 2015-16 season. DeBoer spent four seasons (2011-14) as the bench boss for New Jersey, posting a 114-93-41 record in 248 regular-season contests and reached the Stanley Cup Final in his first campaign with the club in 2011-12. Additionally, he served as the head coach for three seasons (2008-11) in Florida and recorded a 103-107-36 mark in 246 regular-season games.

His extensive head coaching resume includes 13 seasons behind the bench in the Ontario Hockey League (OHL), capturing the 2003 Memorial Cup Championship and two OHL championships (2003, 2008) with Kitchener. DeBoer won the OHL Coach of the Year award in 1999 and 2000 with Plymouth and captured the Canadian Hockey League (CHL) Coach of Year Award in 2000. He is one of eight coaches in OHL history to reach the 500-win plateau (539) and ranks eighth all-time in OHL wins.

DeBoer has represented Team Canada on several occasions on the international stage, capturing gold medals for his country at the 2015 IIHF World Championship and the 2005 World Junior Championship. He served on the coaching staff at four IIHF World Championships (2010, 2011, 2014, 2015), two World Junior Championships (1998, 2005) and at the 2007 Canada-Russia Super Series. Additionally, he was selected by Team Canada to serve an assistant coach for the 2022 Winter Olympics in Beijing, China.

Prior to his coaching career, he was originally selected by the Toronto Maple Leafs in the 12th round (237th overall) of the 1988 NHL Draft and played two seasons of professional hockey with the Milwaukee Admirals of the International Hockey League (IHL).

DeBoer and his wife Susan, have one daughter, Abigail, and two sons, Jack and Matthew.

STEVE SPOTT
ASSISTANT COACH

Steve Spott is in his third season as assistant coach for the Stars in 2024-25.

Spott, 56, has guided the club to back-to-back Western Conference Final appearances with a 99-42-23 regular-season record over the past two seasons.

Prior to joining Dallas, Spott spent parts of the three seasons as an assistant coach with the Vegas Golden Knights. Before joining Vegas' coaching staff, he also served alongside Pete DeBoer from 2015-19 with the San Jose Sharks.

Spott also spent two seasons with the Toronto Maple Leafs organization from 2013-15. He was an assistant coach with the Maple Leafs during the 2014-15 campaign and was the head coach of the Toronto Marlies (AHL) for the 2013-14 season. He posted a 45-25-6 record as the bench boss for the Marlies, leading the club to the Northern Division crown and an appearance in the Western Conference Finals against the Texas Stars.

The Toronto, Ontario native also coached for the Kitchener Rangers and Plymouth Whalers of the Ontario Hockey League (OHL). Spott spent four seasons as an assistant coach on DeBoer's staff in Plymouth before joining him in Kitchener for the 2001-02 season, where he served for seven seasons as an assistant coach. Spott was appointed as head coach of Kitchener in 2008 following DeBoer's departure for the Florida Panthers and earned a 187-121-32 record. He qualified for the postseason in four of his five seasons, including two appearances in the Western Conference Final. Internationally, Spott has earned two gold medals with Team Canada at the Under-18 Ivan Hlinka Memorial Tournament in 2008 as an assistant coach and 2011 as a head coach, and a silver medal at the 2010 World Junior Championship as an assistant.

Spott played collegiate hockey at Colgate University from 1986-90, totaling 148 points (75-73–148) in 131 career games, and two seasons of professional hockey with 35 points (17-18–35).

He and his wife Lisa, have two children: Tyler and Emma.

ALAIN NASREDDINE
ASSISTANT COACH

Alain Nasreddine is in his third season as assistant coach with the Stars.

Nasreddine, 49, has guided the Stars to back-to-back Western Conference Final appearances with a 99-42-23 regular-season record over the past two seasons.

Before joining Dallas, Nasreddine spent seven seasons as an assistant coach with the New Jersey Devils. Hired by New Jersey ahead of the 2015-16 season for his first NHL coaching role, he served as an assistant coach under John Hynes until assuming the role of interim head coach partway through the 2019-20 campaign, earning a 19-16-8 record in 43 games as bench boss. Following the 2019-20 season, Nasreddine was retained as an assistant coach, serving in the role through the end of the 2021-22 season.

The native of Montreal, Quebec began his coaching career in 2010-11 as an assistant coach with the Wilkes-Barre/Scranton Penguins of the American Hockey League. In his first season with the team in 2010-11, he helped the Penguins win the club's first Macgregor Kilpatrick Trophy as AHL regular-season champions after posting a 58-21-0-1 record. Focusing on defensive groups, Nasreddine coached his teams to the best defense in the AHL in four of his five seasons with Wilkes-Barre/Scranton, allowing the fewest goals against in the League during the 2010-11, 2012-13, 2013-14 and 2014-15 campaigns.

Originally selected by the Florida Panthers in the sixth round (135th overall) of the 1993 NHL Draft, the former defenseman recorded five points (1-4–5) in 74 career NHL regular-season games over parts of five seasons with Chicago, Montreal, the New York Islanders and Pittsburgh. He also appeared in 726 career regular-season AHL games, logging 136 points (29-107–136) over 12 seasons with Carolina, Portland, Fredericton, Quebec, Hamilton, Bridgeport and Wilkes-Barre/Scranton. Additionally, Nasreddine earned 16 points (5-11–16) in 104 career AHL postseason contests, reaching the Calder Cup Final twice, both times with Wilkes-Barre/Scranton, in 2004 and 2008.

He and his wife Josiane have three children: sons Alec and Loic, and daughter Kaelle.

MISHA DONSKOV
ASSISTANT COACH

Misha Donskov is in his second season as assistant coach with the Stars in 2024-25.

In his first season with Dallas in 2023-24, the Stars (52-21-9) led the Western Conference with 113 points, their highest total since the Stanley Cup-winning 1998-99 squad (114) and reached the Western Conference Final for the second consecutive season.

Prior to joining the Stars, Donskov, 47, spent seven years with the Vegas Golden Knights. He served as director of hockey operations for his first three years with the club (2016-2019) before moving behind the bench as an assistant coach for the following four seasons (2019-23).

Having joined the club prior to Vegas' expansion draft, Donskov helped construct the Golden Knights roster that made a run to the Stanley Cup Final in its inaugural season. The Golden Knights made the playoffs in five of the six seasons he spent with the team. After moving from the front office to the coaching staff, Donskov and the Golden Knights made two more runs to the conference finals in 2020 and 2021 before winning the Stanley Cup in 2023.

Prior to his time in Vegas, Donskov held positions with Hockey Canada's Men's National Team as an assistant coach and manager of hockey operations/analytics and video. He won two IIHF World Championship gold medals in 2015 and 2016 and a gold medal at the 2016 World Cup of Hockey. In addition, he won a gold medal at the IIHF World Junior Championship in 2015 and the Under-18 Ivan Hlinka Memorial Tournament in 2013. Donskov also won the 2019 Spengler Cup serving as director of hockey operations and assistant coach with Canada's Men's National Team. Additionally, Team Canada selected him to serve as special assistant/coaching operations for the 2022 Winter Olympics in Beijing, China and most recently as an assistant coach for the 2025 4 Nations Face-Off.

Before his tenure with Hockey Canada, Donskov spent two seasons as an associate coach for the Ottawa 67's (OHL) from 2012-14 after three years as an assistant coach for the London Knights (OHL) from 2009-2012. In his final year with London, Donskov took on the role of assistant general manager in addition to coaching duties and helped the club to an OHL Championship.

Early in his career, he held positions in hockey development, community development, fan development, marketing and hockey operations for the Columbus Blue Jackets and Atlanta Thrashers.

Prior to pursuing a full-time career in hockey, Donskov spent six years with Cardinal Health, a Fortune 500 global, integrated healthcare solutions company. He held roles of increasing responsibility in finance, sales, and sales management. He holds a master's degree in kinesiology with a specialization in coaching education from the University of Western Ontario.

Donskov resides in Frisco, Texas with his wife Amy.

JEFF REESE
GOALTENDING COACH

Jeff Reese is in his ninth season as the Stars' goaltending coach in 2024-25.

Reese joined the Stars in June 2015 after spending the previous six seasons in the same role with the Philadelphia Flyers. Prior to the Flyers, he spent 10 seasons with the Tampa Bay Lightning coaching staff, where he was responsible for working with all goaltenders in the organization, as well as assisting in the assessment of amateur goaltenders for the NHL Draft. His time with the Lightning included its 2004 Stanley Cup championship.

Over parts of 11 seasons in the NHL with the Toronto Maple Leafs (1987-92, 1998-99), Calgary Flames (1991-94), Hartford Whalers (1993-96), Tampa Bay (1995-96) and New Jersey Devils (1996-97), Reese posted a 53-65-17 record with a 3.66 goals-against average and five shutouts in 174 career regular-season contests. In 11 appearances in the Stanley Cup Playoffs, Reese posted a 3-5 mark with a 4.08 GAA.

Reese holds NHL records for the most assists and points by a goaltender in a single game, set when he had three assists for the Calgary Flames in a game against the San Jose Sharks on Feb. 10, 1993. He was selected by Toronto in the fourth round (67th overall) of the 1984 NHL Draft.

STAN TUGOLUKOV
SKILLS COACH

Stan Tugolukov returns for his 11th year as a skills coach for the Dallas Stars in 2024-25, working closely with players in skills development and individual on-ice, post-injury conditioning roles.

The Chelyabinsk, Russia native is active in the Dallas-Fort Worth youth hockey scene, serving on the coaching staff for the Dallas Stars Elite Hockey Club.

PATRICK DOLAN
HEAD VIDEO COACH

The 2024-25 campaign marks Patrick Dolan's second season as head video coach of the Stars and his sixth overall with the organization.

Dolan previously served as Dallas' assistant video coach in 2022-23, his first season with the Stars. Prior to joining the NHL club, Dolan spent three seasons serving as video coach of the Texas Stars, Dallas' development affiliate in the AHL, from 2019-22. Before that, Dolan spent two seasons with the AHL's Ontario Reign from 2017-19, also serving as the team's video coach. Additionally, he spent one season as director of hockey operations with the Chicago Steel of the USHL in 2016-17, helping the Steel secure the 2017 Clark Cup for the club's first USHL Championship.

The native of Fort Collins, Colorado attended Gustavus Adolphus College where he earned a bachelor's degree in management in 2014. During his time there, he also worked as the video coach for the men's hockey team for two seasons from 2012-14.

CHRIS DEMCZUK
ASSISTANT VIDEO COACH

Chris Demczuk is in his second season as assistant video coach for the Stars in 2024-25.

Prior to joining the Stars, Demczuk, 30, spent the 2022-23 campaign as video coach for the Texas Stars, Dallas' development affiliate in the AHL. He joined Texas from Colorado College (NCAA), where he served as director of hockey operations in 2021-22. Prior to that, Demczuk held roles with the Stockton Heat (AHL), USA women's hockey and Penn State's women's hockey program.

The Gillette, New Jersey native earned his Bachelor of Arts in Journalism from Penn State University in 2017 and Master's in Sports Industry Management from Georgetown University in 2024.

LUKE CHILCOTT
SKATING COACH

Luke Chilcott is in his eighth season working as a skating coach in the NHL and his third with the Dallas Stars. Chilcott helps develop a deeper knowledge of edge work and efficiency through correct technique and assists players in analyzing beneficial equipment as it relates to their performance.

Chilcott works in the same capacity with the AHL's Texas Stars and plays a role in developing Stars prospects through remote and in-person coaching throughout the year, including the team's annual development camp. Chilcott previously worked for the Allen Americans of the ECHL.

Chilcott founded CSM, Chilcott Skating Mechanics, which he owns and operates out of the Dallas/Fort Worth area. He works privately with students, as well as with small groups, on facilitating efficient skating techniques through helping players understand proper biomechanics. Teams Chilcott has worked with include the Tier 1 Dallas Stars Girls Elite team, which is currently one of the United States' top Girls Travel Hockey programs.

Chilcott has won two national championships at the novice and primary levels of figure skating and went on to compete at the junior and senior standards of the sport. He competed internationally for Great Britain and skated up to the world championship level.

Born in England, Chilcott currently resides in Dallas.

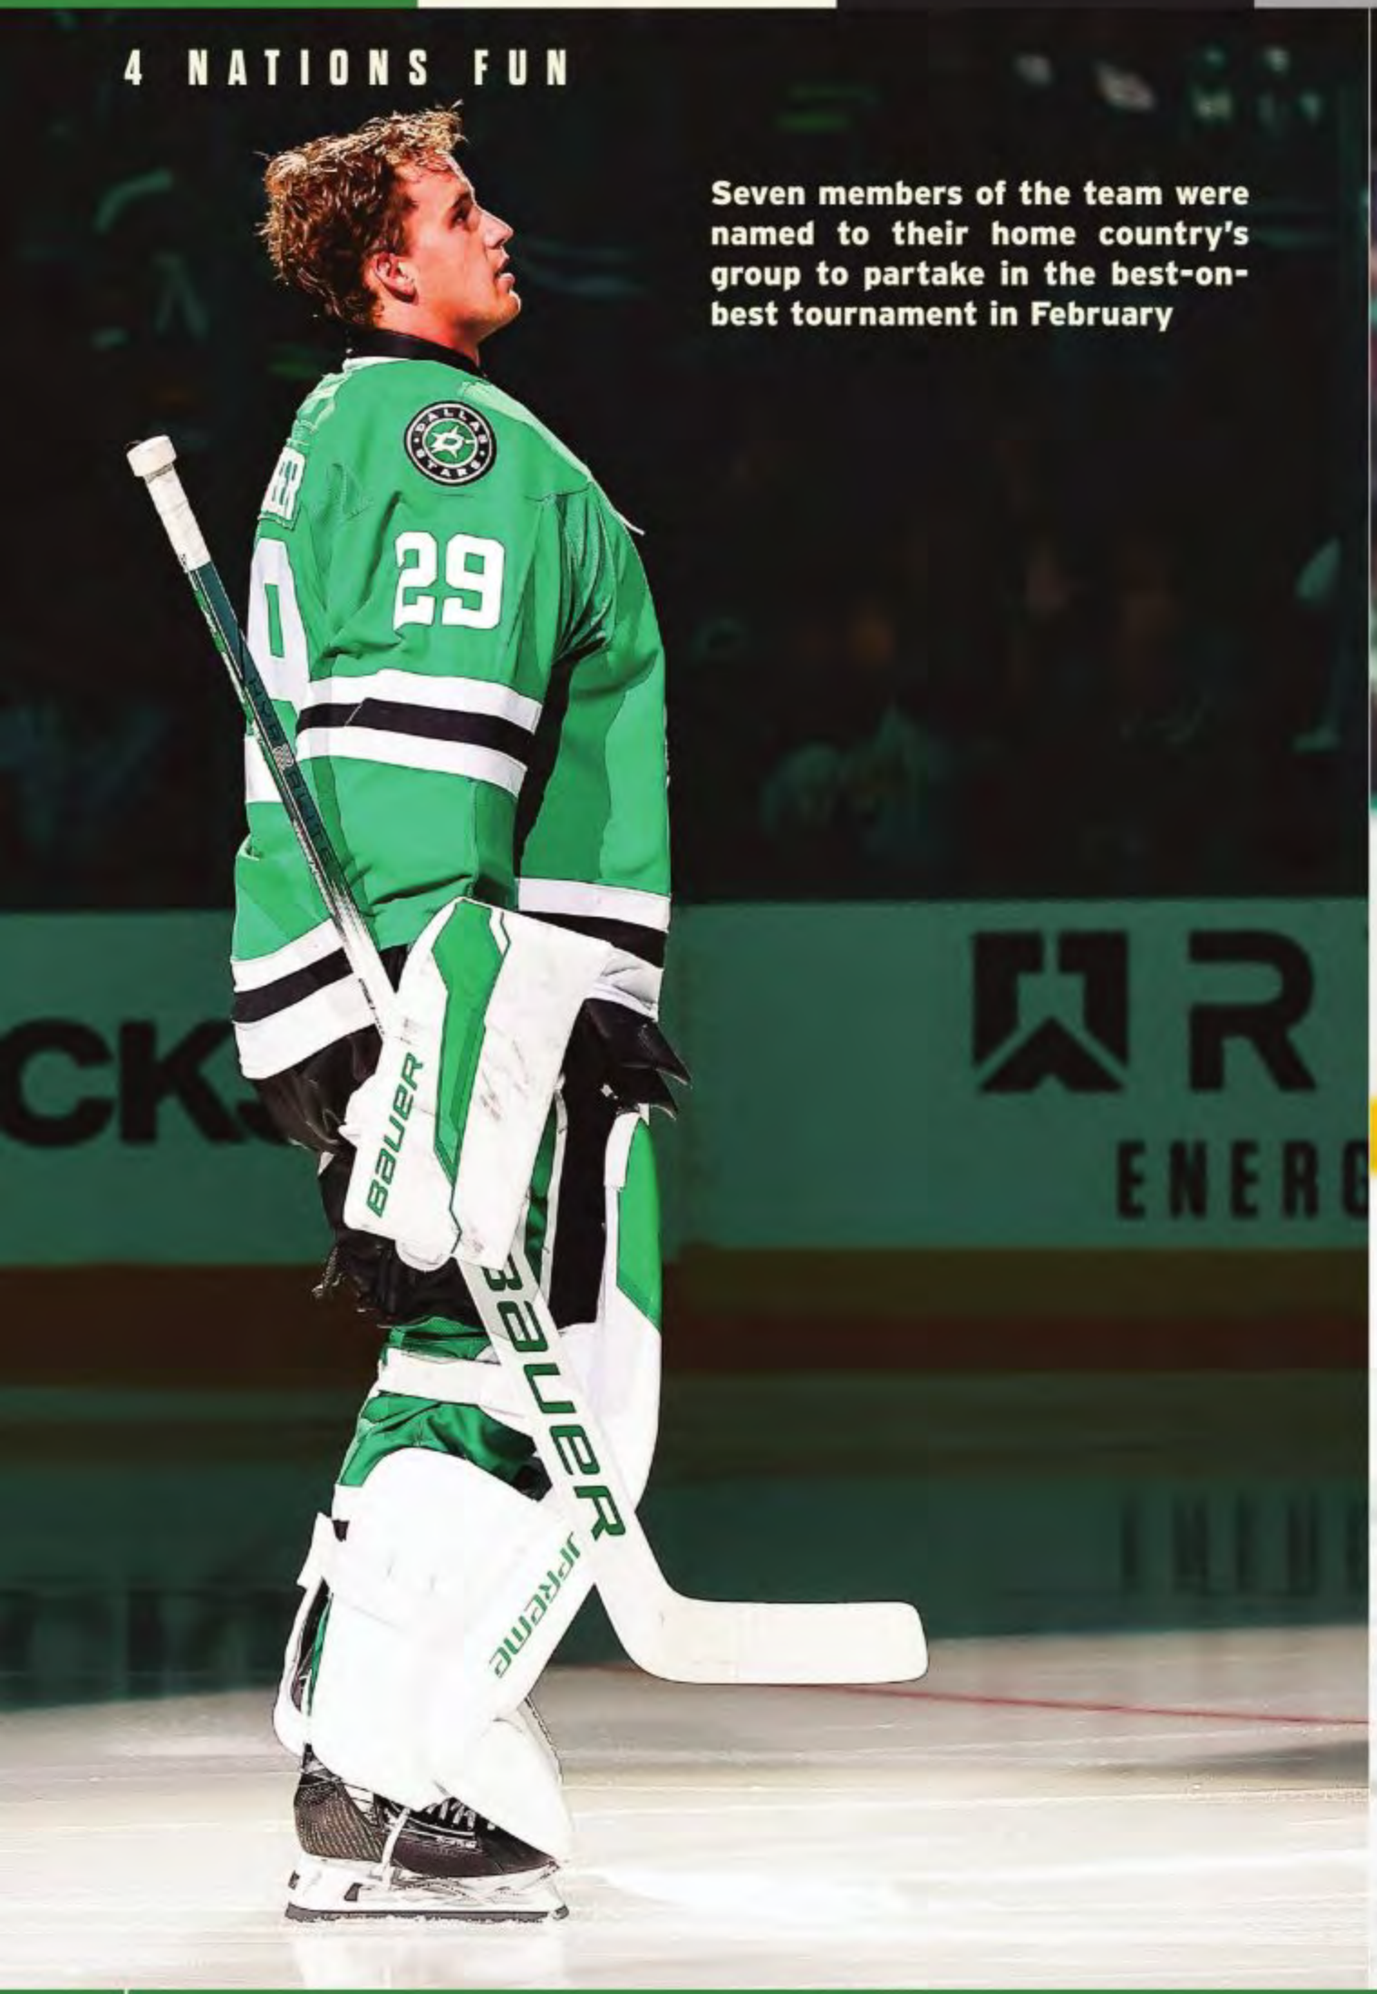
4 NATIONS FUN

Stars players, staff excited for opportunity to represent home countries

By Mike Heika



Seven members of the team were named to their home country's group to partake in the best-on-best tournament in February

4 NATIONS FUN

The 4 Nations Faceoff in February will have both an adversarial and familial feel to it for the Stars organization.

On one hand, Finnish players Esa Lindell, Miro Heiskanen and Roope Hintz will be battling against a Team Canada management squad that includes Jim Nill, Pete DeBoer, and Misha Donskov, as well as a U.S Team that includes goalie Jake Oettinger. On the other hand, the entire organization should be lifted up by the experience.

"We're all excited," said Stars GM Jim Nill, who will serve as associate GM for Team Canada. "It's a compliment to our organization. Pete is going to be one of the coaches, Misha is involved in the coaching staff. We're looking forward to that. It's a great opportunity to represent your country."

DeBoer will serve as an assistant coach to head coach Jon Cooper (Tampa Bay), while Donskov is a special assistant who will do a lot of the work he does for the Stars with game preparation and analytics. Hintz, Lindell and Heiskanen will be on Team Finland, whose GM is former Stars player Jere Lehtinen. Oettinger is one of three goalies on Team USA, whose GM is former Stars player Bill Guerin. That makes for some nice rivalries, and also plenty of familiarity.

Hintz said he has played with a lot of his Team Finland teammates, not just the two in Dallas.

"It's a dream come true to be on that team," said Hintz, who was named when the rosters were finalized on Wednesday. "There are so many guys I know from our younger national teams and a lot of friends as well as a couple of guys from this team, so it's going to be really nice."

The Stars made a trip to Finland in November to play the Florida Panthers in a two-game set, and that sort of set the tone for the three Finns. Each got to play in front of friends and relatives and were able to feel the country's passion for the sport. While these games will be played in Montreal and Boston, the Finnish players said they will take that energy with them.

"That was really cool for us that we got to experience that first and now this," Hintz said. "They're always behind us. Everyone loves to play for their country, so I'm really looking forward to it."

4 NATIONS FUN

While the full rosters were announced on Wednesday, DeBoer has been a part of these teams before and said there can be late changes. As a result, players who are "hot" in January and February could still get an invite.

"Having gone through the process, there's also a whole 'nother group of guys that weren't named that are still in the mix, because this tournament is not until February and we've got some guys in our room who I know are in those conversations for all of the different teams," DeBoer said.

Jason Robertson could be a candidate to play for Team USA, while both Matt Duchene and Mason Marchment could be in the mix for Team Canada. And even players who were named could be jockeying for position on their national rosters. Oettinger looks like a likely backup to Connor Hellebuyck for Team USA, but he could move into the No. 1 spot with his play in the next two months.

"Obviously, it would be one of the coolest things in my career to make that team," Oettinger said after beating Hellebuyck on Sunday. "Hopefully I've done enough to do that."

Each team will play the other one time in a round-robin format from Feb. 12 to 17. The two teams that have the most standings points will then play each other in the championship game on Feb. 20. The league will stop play during the period and this will serve as the All-Star Game for this season, so teams will have to come together quickly. That's part of the fun of international play.

"You have to put it together quick," said Heiskanen, who won gold at the 2022 World Championship with a Finland team that came together quickly. "I think it's our strength that we pretty much know every guy who will be there, so that could make it easier."

Whatever happens, the intensity will be high simply because fans and players have been waiting to see "best on best."

"We forget, this generation of players hasn't had this opportunity," Nill said. "With COVID and the cancelation of the Olympics, they haven't had these opportunities. The Connor McDavid's, the [Nathan] MacKinnon's, the Roope Hintz's and Esa Lindell's, they have missed out on this, so they're very excited. Any time you play for your country, there's something that kicks in."

Chronic Migraine making you feel like a spectator in your own life?

You are not alone.

Could it be Chronic Migraine?
Take the Quiz. Just 7 questions. Then share with your doctor.

INDICATION

BOTOX® (onabotulinumtoxinA) is a prescription medicine that is injected into muscles and used to prevent headaches in adults with chronic migraine who have 15 or more days each month with headache lasting 4 or more hours each day in people 18 years and older.

It is not known whether BOTOX is safe and effective to prevent headaches in patients with migraine who have 14 or fewer headache days each month (episodic migraine).

IMPORTANT SAFETY INFORMATION

BOTOX may cause serious side effects that can be life threatening. Get medical help right away if you have any of these problems any time (hours to weeks) after injection of BOTOX:

- Problems swallowing, speaking, or breathing, due to weakening of associated muscles, can be severe and result in loss of life. You are at the highest risk if these problems are preexisting before injection. Swallowing problems may last for several months.
- Spread of toxin effects. The effect of botulinum toxin may affect areas away from the injection site and cause serious symptoms, including loss of strength and all-over muscle weakness; double vision; blurred vision; drooping eyelids; hoarseness or change or loss of voice; trouble saying words clearly; loss of bladder control; trouble breathing; and trouble swallowing.

There has not been a confirmed serious case of spread of toxin effect away from the injection site when BOTOX has been used at the recommended dose to treat chronic migraine.

BOTOX may cause loss of strength or general muscle weakness, vision problems, or dizziness within hours to weeks of receiving BOTOX. If this happens, do not drive a car, operate machinery, or do other dangerous activities.

Do not receive BOTOX if you are allergic to any of the ingredients in BOTOX (see Medication Guide for ingredients); had an allergic reaction to any other botulinum toxin product such as Myobloc® (rimabotulinumtoxinB), Dysport® (abobotulinumtoxinA), or Xeomin® (incobotulinumtoxinA); have a skin infection at the planned injection site.

The dose of BOTOX is not the same as, or comparable to, another botulinum toxin product.

Serious and/or immediate allergic reactions have been reported, including itching; rash; red, itchy welts; wheezing; asthma symptoms; dizziness; or feeling faint. Get medical help right away if you experience symptoms; further injection of BOTOX should be discontinued.

CHRONIC MIGRAINE

Why wait? Talk to your doctor about BOTOX® for Chronic Migraine.

BOTOX® prevents headaches in adults with Chronic Migraine, 15 or more headache days a month, each lasting 4 hours or more. BOTOX® is not approved for 14 or fewer headache days a month.

BOTOX® prevents, on average, 8 to 9 headache days and migraine/probable migraine days a month (vs 6 to 7 for placebo).

It depends on your insurance, how much your insurance covers for BOTOX®, and what your doctor charges you for the procedure. You will want to check the specifics of your insurance plan, including your deductible and out-of-pocket costs.

Tell your doctor about all your muscle or nerve conditions, such as ALS or Lou Gehrig's disease, myasthenia gravis, or Lambert-Eaton syndrome, as you may be at increased risk of serious side effects, including difficulty swallowing and difficulty breathing from typical doses of BOTOX.

Tell your doctor about all your medical conditions, including if you have or have had bleeding problems; have plans to have surgery; had surgery on your face; have weakness of forehead muscles, trouble raising your eyebrows, drooping eyelids, and any other abnormal facial change; are pregnant or plan to become pregnant (it is not known if BOTOX can harm your unborn baby); are breastfeeding or plan to (it is not known if BOTOX passes into breast milk).

Tell your doctor about all the medicines you take, including prescription and over-the-counter medicines, vitamins, and herbal supplements. Using BOTOX with certain other medicines may cause serious side effects. Do not start any new medicines until you have told your doctor that you have received BOTOX in the past.

Tell your doctor if you received any other botulinum toxin product in the last 4 months; have received injections of botulinum toxin such as Myobloc®, Dysport®, or Xeomin® in the past (tell your doctor exactly which product you received); have recently received an antibiotic by injection; take muscle relaxants; take an allergy or cold medicine; take a sleep medicine; take aspirin-like products or blood thinners.

Other side effects of BOTOX include dry mouth; discomfort or pain at the injection site; tiredness; headache; neck pain; eye problems such as double vision, blurred vision, decreased eyesight, drooping eyelids, swelling of your eyelids, and dry eyes; drooping eyebrows; and upper respiratory tract infection.

For more information, refer to the Medication Guide or talk with your doctor.

You are encouraged to report negative side effects of prescription drugs to the FDA. Visit www.fda.gov/medwatch or call 1-800-FDA-1088.

Patient Information

This summary contains important risk information about BOTOX. This brief summary is not comprehensive and does not take the place of talking with your healthcare provider about your medical condition or treatment. To learn more, talk to your healthcare provider or pharmacist. For a copy of the full Prescribing Information, visit www.BOTOX.com or call 1-800-678-1605.

What is the most important information I should know about BOTOX?

BOTOX may cause serious side effects that can be life threatening, including:

- Problems breathing or swallowing
- Spread of toxin effects

These problems can happen hours, days, to weeks after an injection of BOTOX. Call your doctor or get medical help right away if you have any of these problems after treatment with BOTOX:

- Problems swallowing, speaking, or breathing. These problems can happen hours, days, to weeks after an injection of BOTOX usually because the muscles that you use to breathe and swallow can become weak after the injection. Death can happen as a complication if you have severe problems with swallowing or breathing after treatment with BOTOX.
  - People with certain breathing problems may need to use muscles in their neck to help them breathe. These people may be at greater risk for serious breathing problems with BOTOX.
  - Swallowing problems may last for several months. People who cannot swallow well may need a feeding tube to receive food and water. If swallowing problems are severe, food or liquids may go into your lungs. People who already have swallowing or breathing problems before receiving BOTOX have the highest risk of getting these problems.
- Spread of toxin effects. In some cases, the effect of botulinum toxin may affect areas of the body away from the injection site and cause symptoms of a serious condition called botulism. The symptoms of botulism include:
  - loss of strength and muscle weakness all over the body
  - double vision, blurred vision and drooping eyelids
  - hoarseness or change or loss of voice (dysphonia)
  - trouble saying words clearly (dysarthria)
  - loss of bladder control
  - trouble breathing
  - trouble swallowing

These symptoms can happen hours, days, to weeks after you receive an injection of BOTOX.

These problems could make it unsafe for you to drive a car or do other dangerous activities. See "What should I avoid while receiving BOTOX?"

There has not been a confirmed serious case of spread of toxin effect away from the injection site when BOTOX has been used at the recommended dose to treat chronic migraine, severe underarm sweating, blepharospasm, or strabismus.

What is BOTOX?

BOTOX is a prescription medicine that is injected into muscles and used:

- to treat overactive bladder symptoms such as a strong need to urinate with leaking or wetting accidents (urge urinary incontinence), a strong need to urinate right away (urgency) and urinating often (frequency) in adults when another type of medicine (anticholinergic) does not work well enough or cannot be taken.
- to treat leakage of urine (incontinence) in adults with overactive bladder due to neurologic disease when another type of medicine (anticholinergic) does not work well enough or cannot be taken.
- to treat overactive bladder due to a neurologic disease in children 5 years of age and older when another type of medicine (anticholinergic) does not work well enough or cannot be taken.
- to prevent headaches in adults with chronic migraine who have 15 or more days each month with headache lasting 4 or more hours each day.
- to treat increased muscle stiffness in people 2 years of age and older with spasticity.
- to treat the abnormal head position and neck pain that happens with cervical dystonia (CD) in adults.
- to treat certain types of eye muscle problems (strabismus) or abnormal spasm of the eyelids (blepharospasm) in people 12 years of age and older.

BOTOX is also injected into the skin to treat the symptoms of severe underarm sweating (severe primary axillary hyperhidrosis) when medicines used on the skin (topical) do not work well enough.

It is not known whether BOTOX is safe and effective in people younger than:

- 18 years of age for treatment of overactive bladder with urinary incontinence
- 5 years of age for the treatment of overactive bladder due to a neurologic disease
- 18 years of age for treatment of chronic migraine
- 16 years of age for treatment of cervical dystonia
- 18 years of age for treatment of hyperhidrosis
- 12 years of age for treatment of strabismus or blepharospasm
- 2 years of age for treatment of spasticity

It is not known whether BOTOX is safe and effective to prevent headaches in people with migraine who have 14 or fewer headache days each month (episodic migraine).

It is not known whether BOTOX is safe and effective for severe sweating anywhere other than your armpits.

Who should not receive BOTOX?

Do not receive BOTOX if you:

- are allergic to any of the ingredients in BOTOX. See the end of this Consumer Brief Summary for a complete list of ingredients in BOTOX.
- had an allergic reaction to any other botulinum toxin product such as Myobloc®, Dysport®, or Xeomin®.
- have a skin infection at the planned injection site.
- are being treated for urinary incontinence and have a urinary tract infection (UTI).
- are being treated for urinary incontinence and find that you cannot empty your bladder on your own (only applies to people who are not routinely catheterizing).

What should I tell my doctor before receiving BOTOX?

Tell your doctor about all your medical conditions, including if you:

- have a disease that affects your muscles and nerves (such as amyotrophic lateral sclerosis [ALS or Lou Gehrig's disease], myasthenia gravis or Lambert-Eaton syndrome). See "What is the most important information I should know about BOTOX?"
- have allergies to any botulinum toxin product.
- had any side effect from any botulinum toxin product in the past.
- have or have had a breathing problem, such as asthma or emphysema.
- have or have had swallowing problems.
- have or have had bleeding problems.
- have plans to have surgery.
- had surgery on your face.
- have weakness of your forehead muscles, such as trouble raising your eyebrows.
- have drooping eyelids.
- have any other change in the way your face normally looks.
- have symptoms of a urinary tract infection (UTI) and are being treated for urinary incontinence. Symptoms of a urinary tract infection may include pain or burning with urination, frequent urination, or fever.
- have problems emptying your bladder on your own and are being treated for urinary incontinence.
- are pregnant or plan to become pregnant. It is not known if BOTOX can harm your unborn baby.
- are breastfeeding or plan to breastfeed. It is not known if BOTOX passes into breast milk.

Tell your doctor about all the medicines you take, including prescription and over-the-counter medicines, vitamins and herbal supplements. Using BOTOX with certain other medicines may cause serious side effects. Do not start any new medicines until you have told your doctor that you have received BOTOX in the past.

Especially tell your doctor if you:

- have received any other botulinum toxin product in the last four months.
- have received injections of botulinum toxin, such as Myobloc® (rimabotulinumtoxinB), Dysport® (abobotulinumtoxinA), or Xeomin® (incobotulinumtoxinA) in the past. Be sure your doctor knows exactly which product you received.
- have recently received an antibiotic by injection.
- take muscle relaxants.
- take an allergy or cold medicine.
- take a sleep medicine.
- take anti-platelets (aspirin-like products) or anti-coagulants (blood thinners).

Ask your doctor if you are not sure if your medicine is one that is listed above.

Know the medicines you take. Keep a list of your medicines with you to show your doctor and pharmacist each time you get a new medicine.

How will I receive BOTOX?

- BOTOX is an injection that your doctor will give you.
- BOTOX is injected into your affected muscles, skin, or bladder.
- Your doctor may change your dose of BOTOX, until you and your doctor find the best dose for you.
- Your doctor will tell you how often you will receive your dose of BOTOX injections.

What should I avoid while receiving BOTOX?

BOTOX may cause loss of strength or general muscle weakness, vision problems, or dizziness within hours to weeks of taking BOTOX. If this happens, do not drive a car, operate machinery, or do other dangerous activities. See "What is the most important information I should know about BOTOX?"

What are the possible side effects of BOTOX?

BOTOX can cause serious side effects. See "What is the most important information I should know about BOTOX?"

Other side effects of BOTOX include:

- dry mouth.
- discomfort or pain at the injection site.
- tiredness.
- headache.
- neck pain.
- eye problems: double vision, blurred vision, decreased eyesight, drooping eyelids, swelling of your eyelids, and dry eyes.
- drooping eyebrows.
- urinary tract infection in both children and adults being treated for urinary incontinence.
- painful urination in adults being treated for urinary incontinence.
- bacteria, white blood cells, and blood in the urine of children being treated for urinary incontinence.
- inability to empty your bladder on your own and are being treated for urinary incontinence. If you have difficulty fully emptying your bladder after getting BOTOX, you may need to use disposable self-catheters to empty your bladder up to a few times each day until your bladder is able to start emptying again.
- allergic reactions. Symptoms of an allergic reaction to BOTOX may include: itching, rash, red itchy welts, wheezing, asthma symptoms, or dizziness or feeling faint. Tell your doctor or get medical help right away if you are wheezing or have asthma symptoms, or if you become dizzy or faint.
- upper respiratory tract infection.

Tell your doctor if you have any side effect that bothers you or that does not go away.

These are not all the possible side effects of BOTOX. For more information, ask your doctor or pharmacist.

Call your doctor for medical advice about side effects. You may report side effects to FDA at 1-800-FDA-1088.

General information about the safe and effective use of BOTOX:

Medicines are sometimes prescribed for purposes other than those listed in a Medication Guide. This Consumer Brief Summary summarizes the most important information about BOTOX. If you would like more information, talk with your doctor. You can ask your doctor or pharmacist for information about BOTOX that is written for health professionals.
